

Dates: 13 – 24 June 2022

Location: Almaty, Kazakhstan

UN Military Observer TOT Course – June 2022

Aim and Objectives:

This course is designed to familiarize peacekeeping trainers from Member States with the UNMO STM in order to enable them to deliver the same course in their respective countries. The objectives of the course include:

- Enable participants to deliver UNMO STM – 2019;
 - Enable direct interaction between participants and officers from ITS as well as other Member States;
 - Assess the participant trainers on their delivery skills to be considered as international trainers in ITS Roster, and
 - Support the UN Gender Parity Strategy 2018 – 2028 to increase meaningful participation of women in UN peacekeeping operations.
-

Target Audience:

The primary target audience are the trainers from the Member States in Asia who should be a military officer of the rank of Captain, Major or Lieutenant Colonel; be either employed, or likely to be employed as a peacekeeping training instructor; have the expertise in the development of training design and delivery; have a good command of the English language.

