UN Formed Police Unit (FPU) Command Staff Course, China

Aim and Objectives:
The aim of this course is to train the trainers of Member States (MS) who would be able to deliver the same package to their deploying peacekeepers. The training objectives of the course are:

- To train trainers of Members States to effectively deliver the reinforced training package of UN on FPU Command Staff to their peacekeepers;
- To equip participants with standard knowledge and skills to enable them for deployment as police staff officers in multidimensional UN peacekeeping missions at Sector and Force Headquarters level;
- To assess participants on their delivery skills to be considered as international trainers;
- To enable direct interaction between participants and trainers from ITS.

Dates: 11-22 May 2020
Location: China

Target Audience:
Peacekeeping trainers of UN Member States. The participants should meet the following criteria: Should be police officer of the rank of Chief Superintendnet or above; Should preferably be a graduate of Police Staff College; Be either currently employed as a peacekeeping training instructor, or will be employed for such functions in the near future; Experienced in UN peacekeeping missions; Should have a good command of the English language.